- Conducting research projects on the socio-economic impact of street vending.
- Providing internship and volunteer opportunities for students to work with NASVI and street vendors.
- Developing and disseminating educational materials on street vending for the broader community development.
- Advocating for policies and programs that support and empower street vendors.
- Facilitating collaboration between students, street vendors, and other stakeholders, such as government agencies and NGOs.

3. Responsibilities

Jagat Narain Lal College agrees to:

- Incorporate relevant materials on street vending into its curriculum.
- Provide opportunities for students to participate in workshops, seminars, and conferences organized by NASVI.
- Support faculty and students in conducting research projects on street vending.
- Facilitate internships and volunteer opportunities for students to work with NASVI and street vendors.
- Share relevant resources and expertise with NASVI.

NASVI agrees to:

- Provide expertise and resources to support the development of curriculum materials and educational programs on street vending.
- Participate in workshops, seminars, and conferences organized by the College.
- Collaborate with faculty and students on research projects related to street vending.
- Provide internship and volunteer opportunities for students with NASVI and street vendors.
- Share relevant information and data on street vending with the College.
- Connect the College with street vendor associations and other stakeholders.

4. Financial Arrangements

The financial arrangements for each collaborative activity will be determined by the parties on a case-by-case basis.

5. Term and Termination

This MoU shall be effective for a period of 3 years from the date hereof and may be renewed upon mutual agreement of the parties. This MoU may be terminated by either party upon written notice to the other party.

6. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This MoU shall be governed by and construed following the laws of India. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this MoU shall be settled amicably by mutual consultation between the parties. If the dispute cannot be resolved amicably, it shall be referred to arbitration per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The venue for arbitration shall be [City].

7. Confidentiality

Both parties agree to keep confidential all information received from the other party in connection with this MoU.

8. Entire Agreement
